

PERDANA

KOTA BHARU

PERDANA Trail

PERDANA KOTA BHARU

PERDANA
KOTA BHARU

Perdana Kota Bharu is located in the heart of the city within walking distance of major attractions. The hotel's architectural design prominently features distinctive carvings that preserve the rich Malay heritage. It seamlessly blends modern luxury with classic decor, ensuring a harmonious fusion of tradition and elegance.

MUZIUM NEGERI

This museum showcases Kelantan's rich culture and traditions, focusing on its art, crafts, and musical heritage. It exhibits artefacts from local archaeological sites, offering insights into Kelantan's prehistoric era. Additionally, the display of ceramics suggests early connections between Kelantan and China.

KOTA SULTAN ISMAL

Kota Sultan Ismail Petra is named after the late Sultan Ismail Petra, and it serves as the capital of Kelantan state. The city is known for its rich cultural heritage, including traditional Malay arts, crafts, and music. Visitors can explore historical landmarks, such as the Istana Balai Besar (Grand Palace) and the Kelantan State Museum, which showcase the region's history and traditions. With its vibrant markets, colourful festivals, and warm hospitality, Kota Sultan Ismail Petra offers a glimpse into the heart of Malaysian culture.

ISTANA JAHAR

Originally constructed in 1855 by Sultan Muhammad II of Kelantan as a royal residence for his grandson Long Kundur, Istana Jahar in Kota Bharu has transformed into a museum that celebrates Kelantan's rich culture.

KAMPUNG KRAFTANGAN

The Handicraft Village and Craft Museum also referred to as "Balai Getam Guri," stands as a testament to the state government's initiatives to foster the handicraft industry in Kelantan. Offering an extensive array of traditional crafts including embroidery, songket weaving, batik printing, silversmithing, and mat weaving, it serves as a showcase for Kelantan's rich artistic heritage.

MUZIUM ISTANA

The Royal Museum, also recognised as "Istana Batu," serves as a captivating attraction where visitors can delve into the history of the Kelantan Royal Family. Through its exhibits, the museum offers insights into the customs and traditions of the royal families.

BANK KERAPU

Constructed by Mercantile Bank in 1912, Bank Kerapu was built on land purportedly owned by Nik Yusof, a prominent local chieftain. It is also reputed to be the first stone building in the area. During the Japanese occupation, Bank Kerapu served as the "Kempen Tai," a clandestine police station used for war coordination purposes.

PASAR SITI KHADIJAH

Pasar Siti Khadijah is a bustling market located in Kota Bharu, Kelantan, Malaysia. Named after the wife of Prophet Muhammad, it is one of the most iconic and vibrant markets in the region. Here, visitors can find a wide array of local goods including fresh produce, traditional Malay clothing (such as batik and songket), handicrafts, spices, and various local delicacies.